

ERIC T. TAI

Eric T. Tai is employed by the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) as the managing attorney of the DFPS Appellate Unit. He manages six appellate attorneys who represent the Department before the fourteen Courts of Appeals and the Texas Supreme Court regarding child protection cases. Prior to this, Eric represented children and parents in CPS cases from 2003-2006, then was later employed by the Department as a regional attorney from 2006-2012. As a regional attorney, Eric represented the Department in numerous counties, handling CPS litigation and providing advice on related matters. In 2012, he joined the Appellate Unit as an appellate attorney and became its manager in 2014. Eric received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Texas. He also frequently present CLE on CPS related issues, primarily focusing on litigation and appellate law.

